Organized, Rapid Response System...

Applicable wherever and whenever incident management is a priority, the T2™ Command Kit from North American Rescue is the leading choice of first-responders to mass casualty or tactical triage scenes. The kit enables users to promptly establish an organized disaster-response system.

The kit includes laminated and detachable T2™ Commander, T2™ Incident-Response, and T2™ Blast/WMD Scene-Command Boards for organizing and tracking groups of casualties, plus a pad of 50 T2™ Patient Tracking Boards for documenting individual patients.

The self-contained kit also has 2 bar-code storage sheets, 3 clear storage pouches, and 2 black grease pencils...Everything the user needs for disaster management in one convenient location.

NAR addresses the challenge of chaos from a practical perspective so first-responders can meet that challenge with confidence and efficiency.
