

MARINER KIT™

Designed to Meet the Rigorous Requirements of the Emergency Med Assist Team (EMAT)

North American Rescue's Mariner Kit™ is the standard casualty response bag for the Submarine Forces.

The compact bag is orange with a reflective trim for high visibility, easy transport and convenient storage. The large central compartment, multiple attachment points and front Trauma-shear storage offer a versatile, mobile platform with ready-to-use supplies for treating leading causes of preventable combat death.

The Mariner Kit is packed in a contoured profile bag with a large central compartment, multiple attachment points and front trauma shear storage. The kit's contoured profile is designed to be worn as a belly bag or slung over the shoulder.

Specifications:
