GREENVILLE COUNTY K-9 UNIT HONORS NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE

Greer, SC (May 7, 2010) – The Greenville County Sheriff’s Office recently honored North American Rescue with an appreciation plaque for outstanding support and dedication to the Greenville County Sheriff’s Office K-9 Unit.

The GCSO K-9 Service Unit provides highly trained canine teams to protect the people and property of Greenville County, searching and tracking missing persons, detecting narcotics and explosives, apprehending criminals, and protecting officers confronting dangerous situations.

North American Rescue recognized the invaluable merit of these dogs who bravely and selflessly defend their human partners with their lives, and enthusiastically offered the use of their facility to the K-9 Unit. This advantageous collaboration resulted in extensive canine medical classes, rigorous training scenarios, and the development of the North American Rescue K-9 Tactical Field Kit, which provides lifesaving treatment to injured canines at the point of injury or when veterinary care is not immediately available.

Greenville County Sheriff Steve Loftis presented the award to North American Rescue at a ceremony last Wednesday. Accepting on behalf of NAR were Vice-Chair and Founder Robert Castellani and Director of Law Enforcement and EMS Brent Bronson.

North American Rescue, LLC, based in Greer, South Carolina, has enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. By providing innovative casualty care solutions to first responders, health care professionals, and security forces at home and abroad, NAR is leading the fray to decrease preventable death on the battlefield, whether it be a foreign combat zone or the streets of America.
