FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE WELCOMES NEW PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT TEAM MEMBER ANTHONY HORTON

Greer, SC (September 4, 2009) North American Rescue, Inc. recently announced the latest addition to the Product Development team, Anthony Horton.

Anthony has an Associate of Science degree in Emergency Medical Services and will graduate in December from MUSC with his BS of Health Professions Education and Management.

Providing tactical medical support to the Special Operations Response Team for Laurens County, SC and serving as a Firefighter/Paramedic for Mauldin City, SC since 1990, Anthony brings with him nearly 20 years of medical emergency knowledge and experience.

No stranger to NAR, Anthony participated as a volunteer in the 2009 SWAT Competition as well as numerous other training programs offered by North American Rescue.

NAR is excited to have Anthony on board and is confident that his experience and talents will be a stimulating addition to Product Development.

North American Rescue, Inc., based in Greer, South Carolina, has enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. By providing innovative casualty care solutions to first responders, health care professionals, and security forces at home and abroad, NAR is leading the fray to decrease preventable death on the battlefield, whether it be a foreign combat zone or the streets of America.
