NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

Greer, SC (December 19, 2012) – Samuel D. Wyman, III announced his intention to retire from his position at North American Rescue (NAR) today. He has served as NAR’s president since October, 2009 and has been an integral part of preparing the company for continued success and growth.

Paul Murphy, North American Rescue’s Chairman of the Board and Partner with NAR’s parent company, Sentinel Capital Partners, extended his thanks to Mr. Wyman for his achievements at NAR. “We are grateful for Mr. Wyman’s ability to take the reins of NAR and raise it to the next level and wish him all the best as he transitions to this exciting time of life,” stated Mr. Murphy. “NAR is a strong, successful company thanks to the people and leadership that are here and we look forward to continuing to see it grow and provide life saving medical equipment that makes a difference.”

Mr. Wyman has enjoyed a dynamic career that includes graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point and later earning a Master’s degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology. He is a decorated Vietnam War helicopter pilot, former Assistant Professor at the United States Military Academy, a Research Officer with NASA Langley, and a former Assistant Program Manager for the Apache AH-64 Attack Helicopter.

Mr. Wyman has held several senior executive positions with both public and private companies including: Harris Corporation, Booz Allen and Hamilton, and General Dynamics. He also held senior positions at the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) where he was responsible for a variety of classified programs.

Mr. Murphy announced that Tom Barthel, NAR’s current CFO, would assume the position of interim President until a permanent candidate is identified. This ensures that NAR will continue with strong leadership during this transition and will maintain the quality and service that their customers expect and deserve.

North American Rescue (NAR), based in Greer, South Carolina, has proudly enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. NAR is leading the way in decreasing preventable deaths by providing innovative casualty care solutions to our uniformed soldiers, first responders, health care professionals, and security forces both at home, and abroad in foreign combat zones.
