NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE HONORED WITH SENTINELS MEDAL OF FREEDOM AWARD

Greer, SC (July 27, 2011) – During the Ranger Rendezvous held at Ft. Benning, Mike Conklin, head of the Sentinels of Freedom, presented representatives from North American Rescue (NAR) with the Sentinel's Medal of Freedom Award. The award was given for NAR's outstanding support of the Sentinel's mission to support severely wounded and injured members of the United States Armed Forces over the last 4 years. Receiving the award on behalf of NAR were VP of Sales, Matthew Westra and Director of Military Products, Ricardo Flores-Artola.

The Sentinels of Freedom provides life-changing opportunities for men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces who have suffered severe injuries and need the support of grateful communities to realize their dreams.

"We are honored to receive this esteemed award and consider it a privilege to have the opportunity to support our wounded soldiers through the efforts of the Sentinels of Freedom," states Samuel D. Wyman III, President of North American Rescue.

North American Rescue has made it their mission to support wounded warriors and bring awareness to their needs.

North American Rescue (NAR), based in Greer, South Carolina, has proudly enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. NAR is leading the way in decreasing preventable deaths by providing innovative casualty care solutions to our uniformed soldiers, first responders, health care professionals, and security forces both at home, and abroad in foreign combat zones.
