FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PATRICK LYNCH JOINS NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE

Greer, SC (June 1, 2009) – North American Rescue enthusiastically welcomes Patrick Lynch aboard today as the newest addition to the Quality Control team. His role in the company will be to manage Regulatory and Quality Control activities.

Patrick comes to NAR with over fifteen years of experience with Medical Device companies such as AGFA and Siemens. Patrick's responsibilities have included administration of Quality Systems, both FDA and ISO. He has written several successful Premarket Notifications (510(k)), and successfully interfaced with FDA on different occasions including several factory inspections.

“It takes a resourceful individual with specialized experience to bring value in this field,” said NAR Director of Product Management Teresa Dupuis. “We look forward to learning and working with Patrick in the role of regulatory affairs and quality systems management.”

North American Rescue, Inc., based in Greer, South Carolina, has enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. By providing innovative casualty care solutions to first responders, health care professionals, and security forces at home and abroad, NAR is leading the fray to decrease preventable death on the battlefield, whether it be a foreign combat zone or the streets of America.
