FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE HELPS KIDS GO TO COLLEGE THROUGH SPECIAL OPERATION WARRIOR FOUNDATION

Greer, S.C. (November 16, 2007) -- North American Rescue Foundation contributed $75,000 to the Special Operation Warrior Foundation, based in Tampa, Florida, between August and November, 2007.

The Special Operation Warrior Foundation has been providing full college scholarship grants as well as educational and family counseling to surviving children of fallen Navy, Army, Air Force and Marine Corps special operations soldiers for almost 30 years. Full scholarships have been granted to more than 760 children of 600 fallen warriors.

The Special Operation Warrior Foundation also provides $2,000 of immediate assistance to enable family members to travel to the hospital without delay when a special ops parent has been severely wounded in an operational or training mission.

North American Rescue enthusiastically supports the mission of the Special Operation Warrior Foundation and is proud to be a part of helping the children of fallen soldiers receive an education.

North American Rescue, Inc., based in Greer, South Carolina, has enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. By providing innovative casualty care solutions to first responders, health care professionals, and security forces at home and abroad, NAR is leading the fray to decrease preventable death on the battlefield, whether it be a foreign combat zone or the streets of America.
